

Executive Profile

Margaret C. Kelsey
Vice President, Corporate Development,
General Counsel & Secretary

Margaret C. Kelsey was named Vice President – Corporate Development, General Counsel & Secretary in October 2008. She leads Modine’s corporate strategy and business development activities, in addition to her responsibilities as General Counsel and Secretary, which include overseeing a variety of legal and regulatory matters, serving as liaison to Modine’s Board of Directors and managing corporate governance matters.

Ms. Kelsey joined Modine in April 2001 as Senior Counsel. She was promoted to Senior Counsel & Assistant Secretary in April 2002, and also became an officer of the company. She was then promoted to Corporate Treasurer and Assistant Secretary in January 2006. In January 2007 she was named Vice President – Finance, Corporate Treasury and Business Development, and in June 2008 she became Vice President, Corporate Strategy and Business Development, with responsibility for analyzing and consolidating global product, brand, market, geographic and customer strategies, as well as continuing to lead Modine’s annual and five-year planning processes and business development initiatives such as acquisitions and divestitures.

Before joining Modine, Ms. Kelsey was a partner with the law firm of Quarles & Brady, LLP in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. She joined Quarles & Brady as an associate in 1989. At Quarles & Brady, she was a member of the firm’s litigation group, specializing in product liability, and represented clients across the United States.

Born in Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin, Ms. Kelsey received a bachelor’s degree (with High Honors) in History from Mount Mary College in Milwaukee, a Juris Doctor degree (Magna Cum Laude) from Georgetown University Law Center in Washington, D.C., and a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from the University of Wisconsin – Milwaukee. She is a member of the Mount Mary College Board of Trustees, the Friends Board of the Haggerty Museum of Art at Marquette University, and the Marquette University High School Board of Directors. She received the “Women of Influence” Award in the Corporate Executive category from The Milwaukee Business Journal in June 2005.